SESQUI EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED BY COMMITTEE

A tentative schedule of activities for the Gettysburg borough Sesquicentennial was outlined Friday evening at a meeting of an executive committee of the Sesqui held at the home of the chairman, Burgess William G. Weaver.

Plans were also made for a meeting Tuesday evening, August 14, at 7:30 o'clock at the engine house to which representatives of all organizations in the community are invited.

At the August 14 meeting further plans will be made for the program, with inclusion of a number of other events in the schedule to take place at that time. Copies of the pageant will also be distributed at that meeting, with various organizations to be asked to select the scenes in the pageant they may wish to present.

SUV CHARTER TO BE DRAPED FOR 109 DAYS

The charter of the Gettysburg Camp of the Sons of Union Veterans will be draped for 109 days, one day for each year of the life of Albert Woolson, last survivor of the Grand Army of the Republic who died Thursday.

Decision to drape the charter was made at a meeting of the local SUV Friday evening at the GAR rooms on E. Middle St.

Further reports on the dedication of the GAR memorial on the Gettysburg Battlefield September 12 were given at the camp meeting by Chester S. Shriver, past commander of the local camp and state SUV department commander.

To Carry Colors
The local camp accepted the assignment to carry the colors of the national SUV commander-in-chief at both the dedicatory exercises at Ziegler's grove September 12 and at the campfire program to be held September 9 at Harrisburg in connection with the national encampment of the SUV there. The local VFW and American Legion color guards will participate in the September 12 program here, Shriver announced.

The GAR memorial, which will consist of a base surmounted by a heroic-sized sculpture of Albert Woolson, will be accepted by the assistant secretary of the Department of Interior, Shriver said.

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, will be a speaker September 9 at the campfire program at the Harrisburg convention. Gov. George M. Leader has also given tentative acceptance to an invitation to speak at the campfire session.

Past Commander Wilbur Nett presided at the SUV meeting in the absence of Commander James Rose.

Cemetery Hill. In event of inclement weather, the showing will be presented in the Cyclorama.

Court-Martial Deliberates Penalty For M'Keon Found Guilty On Two Minor Counts In 6 Deaths

By CHARLES WEST
PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—A court-martial jury filed out of the courtroom at 9:46 a.m. today to determine the sentence of Marine SSGT. Matthew C. McKeon.

The rangy, 31-year-old former drill instructor was convicted last night on two minor counts growing out of the drowning of six Marine recruits on a night march last April 8.

McKeon, who has lost 15 pounds since the Ribbon Creek tragedy, awaited sentence stoically. He told a reporter:

"It Will Be Fair"
"Whatever they give me will be fair. I can't say enough for the members of the court (the jury). Right now I'm just hoping for the best."

The jury cleared him of manslaughter charges last night after deliberating more than six hours. He was convicted on charges of negligent homicide and violation of a general order against drinking on duty.

McKeon could receive a sentence of three years imprisonment and a dishonorable discharge, but Marine sources said the maximum was extremely unlikely.

Can Get 6 Months

Under military law, unless McKeon gets a punitive discharge—dishonorable—he cannot be imprisoned more than six months.

Just before the jury retired, defense attorney Emile Zola Beriman of New York City pointed out that McKeon had a clean record to date and was a "dedicated and good Marine . . . a man of family and a man of deep religious devotion." He also asked for leniency, calling attention to the seven weeks McKeon spent in prison immediately after the tragedy.

The panel received the case at noon yesterday on the 18th

Sgt. McKeon Awaiting The Verdict

day of trial. Deliberations took six hours and 48 minutes before the verdict was returned last night.

Greeted Verdict Joyfully
Both McKeon and his attractive brunette wife greeted the verdict with joy.

"I feel good, honest to God," McKeon told reporters moments after the finding was announced. He broke into a wide grin as friends rushed across the courtroom to congratulate him.

Tears betrayed the strain 28-year-old Betty McKeon has been under during the trial of her husband. She blinked them back, and said, "I just feel stunned," then she smiled broadly. In two weeks she expects their third child.

Marine For 8 Years

McKeon has been a marine for eight years. Before that he saw combat duty on the aircraft carrier Essex during World War II. Platoon 71 was his first as a trainer of recruits.

His court-martial was the most spectacular in 180 years of Marine history.

The commandant of the corps, Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, four silver stars gleaming, testified for the sergeant. Pate told the court in his opinion McKeon should lose a stripe for drinking and be transferred for "stupidity" in leading the raw recruits into the tide-flooded mud and grass of Ribbon Creek. Under certain conditions as outlined in the prosecution's case, he agreed a court-martial was indicated.

"Good Practice"

A three-star general came out of retirement to tell the court that American fighting men need more night training such as McKeon ordered. Lt. Gen. Lewis B. (Chesty) Puller, a five time winner of the Navy Cross and outspoken hero beloved by the corps, said the McKeon march, barring its result, was good training practice.

Berman has told reporters all along that he was defending McKeon by defending Marine training methods—so effective in the past for turning out reliable and rugged fighters.

He made a nationwide appeal for ex-Marines to testify to night

The recapitulation of the trooper's activities shows there were more accidents so far this year than during the comparable period a year ago, 197 to 193 for the first seven months of 1955, but there were fewer people killed and injured. There were 16 fatalities injured in auto crashes during the first seven months of 1955 and 196 injured.

In May there were 23 accidents in one of which two persons were fatally injured. There were 15 injured in the May crashes and property damage totaled $10,836.

April's record was 18 accidents, one fatal, in which one person was killed. There were seven injured and damage was $6,726. In March, when there were 35 accidents, three of them were fatal with four persons fatally injured. Thirty-one persons were injured and damage was $38,570. 'CYCLE DRIVER HURT IN CRASH

A motorcycle driver was injured Friday night at 8:20 o'clock when the "cycle and a car collided six miles south of here at the intersection of the Emmitsburg Rd. and a township road.

State police said Carl F. Hobbs, 17, Fairfield R. 2 farmer, was traveling north on a 1942 motorcycle when Winfield Ridgely, 89, Taneytown R. 2 laborer, driving south in a 1948 sedan made a left turn in front of the approaching cycle.

The motorcycle struck the fender of the car and Hobbs was thrown across the hood of the car, crashing into the windshield. Removed to the Warner Hospital by the investigating officer, Hobbs was treated for bruises of both arms and legs and lacerations of the face.

Ridgely later paid a fine of $10 and costs of $5 before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp., on a charge of failing to yield one-half the highway, brought against the Maryland man by state police.

Damage was estimated at $50 to the Ridgely car, which was damaged about the right front fender and windshield, and $25 to the motorcycle which had damage to the front fender and a bent front wheel.

ROBERT L. BLACK OF ASPERS IS FATALLY HURT; CAR HITS POLE

Robert Lynn Black, 21, Aspers R. 1 laborer, was fatally injured early this morning when his car ran off the road near Aspers and crashed into a utility pole. Dr. C. G. Crist, the Adams County coroner, said the death was caused by a fractured skull.

State police said Black was driving one-tenth of a mile south of Aspers on the Centre Mills Rd. when his 1941 sedan left the highway at 12:45 o'clock this morning and struck the pole. Police surmise the operator had fallen asleep.

While damage to the car was estimated at $250, the pole was undamaged.

Dies Five Hours Later

Black was found in his car by John G. Gochenauer, a passing motorist, who rushed the young man to the Warner Hospital here.

Death occurred at the hospital at 5:18 o'clock this morning, about five hours after the accident. In addition to a fractured skull, Black had also suffered fractures of the facial bone in the accident.

PAIR WANTED HERE RECEIVE TERMS IN PEN

Francis D. Daywalt, 23, R. 1, Waynesboro, and Robert C. Grove, 20, R. 20, Fayetteville, two members of a four-man gang who admitted participation in a series of crimes in the South Mountain area on the night of July 22, were ordered confined to state penal institutions for terms of two to six years by Judge Chauncey M. Deput in Franklin County Court, Chambersburg, Friday morning. Both youths pleaded guilty to charges of burglary, larceny and assault with intent to rob.

The other two members of the group, a 15- and a 17-year-old boy, are scheduled to appear in juvenile court.

The arrests followed police investigation of a brutal beating of Nicholas (Nick) Tipowitz, 60, South Mountain storekeeper. Intent on robbing Tipowitz, the youths called him from his sleep on the pretense that they wanted gasoline. Daywalt, handling a heavy club, tried to knock out Tipowitz but missed striking his head and the storekeeper remained on his feet.

Robbed Tavern
The youths fled but shortly after went to Leon's Tavern, forced their way in the closed tavern and stole merchandise and cash in the amount of $19.25.

State police from Gettysburg questioned the prisoners following their arrest and three of the youths admitted robbing Mrs. Susan Carbaugh on May 17 of $153.33. At that time Grove and Daywalt went to the home of 80-year-old Mrs. Carbaugh, a widow, searched her house and stole wallets containing money. Police said that one juvenile waited for the pair some distance away, and although he had no part in the robbery shared in the split of the money, with each person getting $51.11.

Reprimanded By Court

On parole at the time of his arrest, Grove was severely reprimanded by the court for not taking advantage of his opportunity "to make something out of yourself." He defended his actions by saying "We were all pretty high" and didn't realize the seriousness of the actions.

New State Procedure

Under a new state procedure, neither defendant was sent to a specific institution. Instead both were ordered delivered to the East-

WEARY SUBWAY HORDES FIND NEW AD TO READ

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Anything can happen in New York—even an advertisement in the subway listing the Ten Commandments and signed simply "This Space Paid for by a Friend."

The weary strap-hanging hordes accustomed to scanning ads for cigarettes and headache pills may have wondered briefly about this strange addition to subway literature. Probably some read the majestic words for the first time. And some may have found comfort or new resolution in them.

"My Dream For Years"
That was the hope of the woman who paid for the space. It took considerable detective work to find her, and then a great deal of persuasion to convince her that it would not be bad taste to reveal her identity.

Adelaide O'Mara has worked as a stenographer for the New York Life Insurance Co. for 32 years, and all that time she has been riding the subway twice a day from Brooklyn to New York and back.

"It's been my dream for many years," said Miss O'Mara shyly, after she recovered from the first shock of having her secret discovered. "It's just something I always wanted to do. I thought it might do some good."

Miss O'Mara, who lives with her mother, saved up her money for a long time to pay the $400 required to buy subway card advertisements for a month. She didn't tell anybody about it, except her mother and a few close friends who were sworn to secrecy.

But for the last couple of weeks since the brave new card has been in place, Miss O'Mara has had a warm feeling when she joined the pushing subway crowds morning and evening, and she watched to see how many people looked at the Ten Commandments.

"Quite a few did, I think," said Miss O'Mara. "I saw people looking at the card. And it was placed right next to one about juvenile delinquency. I thought that was nice."

Overwhelmed Now
Miss O'Mara is a Catholic, but she wanted to make it clear that her action was not sponsored by her church, or by any organization.

"It's personal," said she. "A thing I wanted to do, myself." Now that the secret is out, Miss O'Mara has been so overwhelmed by the congratulations of fellow office workers and the interest of all kinds of people that she hopes maybe somebody else might get the same kind of idea, and maybe the Ten Commandments might become a permanent part of the subway.

"I'd like to see a plan like that," said Miss O'Mara. "Maybe it could happen. I've heard it said that sometimes a small thing can change the world."

Court-Martial

marches by recruits similar to the McKee march. The response was staggering as some 200 officers flooded into this remote island from across the United States.

Berman summoned 18 and called for testimony from only one. But by this time that testimony was not needed. The seven silver stars on the witness stand had changed the course of the trial.

Opposing the eloquence of Berman, Sevier presented the government's case methodically and quietly, as if he were building an arch and placing one stone at a time carefully on top of the other.

Then two of the corps' top generals kicked out the keystone.

NEW YORK (AP)—Three of steel's "big four" signed strike-ending contracts last night and early today with the United Steelworkers Union.

The signings apparently marked the end of the 35-day-old work stoppage, and maintenance crews in several of the mills were ordered back to work today.

U.S. Steel and Republic Steel, first and third ranking steel producers in the nation, initiated pacts last night. Jones & Laughlin, the No. 4 producer, and Wheeling Steel, ninth largest, signed early today.

Bethlehem In Recession
Big Bethlehem Steel, expected to be one of the earliest signers, recessed talks until shortly before noon today. More than 30 other firms were expected to conclude union pacts today.

U.S. Steel has 186,000 employees; Republic, 49,000; Jones & Laughlin, 28,000, and Bethlehem, 89,000. Pittsburgh Steel, which has seven plants and some 10,000 employees, signed yesterday afternoon. Crucible Steel, a major company, signed Thursday night.

The union reached basic agreement with the industry a week ago yesterday, but the ironing out of individual contracts—including fringe benefits and local problems—proved to be time-consuming.

The basic pact—a three-year, no-strike contract—calls for an hourly wage package variously estimated at 45 to 55 cents an hour. The average wage under the old contract was $2.46 an hour.

In Cleveland Republic Steel announced plans to call 10 to 20 per cent of their production employees back to work immediately. A company spokesman estimated it may take three or four weeks before operations are normal.

Pittsburgh Steel said it hopes to reach full production "within two weeks."

3 BILLION LOAN WILL BE MADE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury Friday announced plans to borrow three billion dollars this month to tide it over the period of lean tax collections from now until next spring.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said the issue of tax anticipation certificates of indebtedness will bear interest at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent.

The books will be opened for subscription only one day—next Monday, Aug. 6.

The tax certificates will be dated Aug. 15 and will mature next March 22.

They will be retired next March at par plus accrued interest, in payment of income and profits taxes due next March 15.

Corporations often purchase such tax anticipation certificates with funds they are setting aside to pay taxes due in future months.

Woman Killed In Truck Accident

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Miss Helen P. Hollowell, 55, of Philadelphia was killed Thursday in a head-on collision of her automobile and a laundry truck at the intersection of Routes 19 and 90 two miles north of Stroudsburg.

The truck driver, Howard Powell, 19, of East Stroudsburg, suffered minor injuries. He was taken to East Stroudsburg General Hospital.

Miss Hollowell lived at the Embassy Apts. in Philadelphia and had a summer home at Buck Hill Falls.

BILL PROTECTS KIDDIES
WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation has a new law designed to save children from being trapped and suffocating while playing inside refrigerators.

President Eisenhower signed a bill banning interstate shipment of any household refrigerator that is not equipped with a door that can be opened easily from the inside.

SOME PARENTS OF SIX DEAD MARINES ANGRY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Parents of Marines who drowned in the night disciplinary march led by S. Sgt. Matthew McKee today greeted the verdict of his court-martial with quiet acceptance and anger.

"We want to see reform in the system. We do not seek revenge against the sergeant," said Mrs. Douglas Aaron Wood of Bay Shore, N. Y., who lost her son, Norman Alfred Wood, 17.

The military court cleared McKee of manslaughter but convicted him on two lesser counts—negligent homicide and violation of a general order against drinking on duty.

Called "Whitewash"
Through a member of her family, Mrs. Pearl Thompson, mother of Leroy Thompson, 18, of Brooklyn, said "There is no statement now. There will be no statement later."

Mrs. Alma T. Coughlin, of Alexandria, Va., mother of Jerry Lamont Thomas, 17, was angry. "I think the whole thing is a whitewash," she said. "It looks like a packed deal to me and anybody with just a little bit of sense sees it the same way. They'll probably put him on probation. I think the sentence should be six years at hard labor or whatever more they could give McKee."

Mrs. Coughlin was especially critical of the court-martial appearance and testimony of Marine Corps Commandant Gen. Randolph McC. Pate.

"General Showed Stupidity"
"Gen. Pate just showed his own stupidity by even going down to the court-martial," she said. "He's just as stupid as McKee."

"Pate going down there and what he said must have made every Marine that's half decent—and there must be at least a few—feel like two cents. Pate's testimony was a slap at the whole corps and tore down the very things the boys swear to protect when they enlist."

"I think Gen. Pate deliberately attempted to influence the outcome. No Marine on that court is going to go against what Pate says—Pate could make it hot for them."

State Police Jobs Are Reclassified

HARRISBURG (P) — Detective ranks will be eliminated under the new Pennsylvania State Police job evaluation and classification plan but officials assured there will be no salary drops or removal of personnel.

Lt. Col. A. F. Dahlstrom, deputy state police commissioner, said the elimination of the detective ranks means changes of classification for some troopers.

Under the old system, a detective received pay comparable to a first sergeant.

Under the reclassification program, former detectives will get the same pay as a corporal while a former detective sergeant will receive pay as a regular sergeant.

BANKING BOARD REVERSES ORDER

HARRISBURG (P) — The State Banking Board yesterday reversed the State Banking Dept. and refused an application of the Western Saving Fund Society of Philadelphia for permission to establish a branch at the Lehigh Valley Shopping Center in Bucks County.

"On the basis of the evidence submitted for the consideration of the board and the law applicable thereto the board finds that there is no need in the Lehigh Valley community for the banking services and facilities contemplated by the branch application submitted by the Western Saving Fund Society," the board's official order states.

Under a 1955 amendment to the law governing establishment of branches outside the principal city of business of an institution approval of both the department and the board is required.

At a hearing on the application last April objections to the proposal were filed by bankers' organizations and banks in the suburban Philadelphia area as well as the Delaware Valley Chamber of Commerce.

PHILADELPHIA (P) — A union leader said Friday the Independent United Electrical Workers are shooting for a settlement by Tuesday of the 293-day-old strike against the Westinghouse Electric Corp. plant in nearby Lester.

Later, at the conclusion of the business refreshments were served by Mrs. Jean Helzel, Irvin DeGroff and Ralph Copenhaver.

Plan Special Meeting
There will be special meeting of the club on Thursday evening, August 16, at the club grounds, to complete plans for the horse show. In case of rain the meeting will be held at the clubhouse, near town.

The next regular meeting will take place on Thursday, September 6, 8 p.m. at the clubhouse, "Sunset Hill Farm." The refreshment committee for next month includes Glenn Kinding, LeRoy Lippy and Lewis Lippy.

Property Sold
The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, will hold its monthly meeting at 8 o'clock on Monday evening at the church.

Charles Strickhouser, Taneytown R. 1, has sold his property to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Overholzer, Taneytown R. 2. The sale was made through Stanley R. Sell, Littlestown real estate agent.

Robert Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Horner, M. St., returns home today after a week spent at Camp Michaux, near Pine Grove Furnace. He was in the junior camping program.

BIG 3 AWAIT RESPONSES TO CONFERENCE CALL ON SUEZ

LONDON (P) — The Western Big Three awaited response today to their call for a 24-nation conference to work out a peaceful solution to the Suez Canal crisis.

Facing them was a fresh accusation from Egypt that their rights had been ignored in this week's London talks on the Canal question.

But in the criticism Egypt neither accepted nor rejected an invitation to the Aug. 16 conference on international control of the waterway. Diplomatic sources here have said the conference would be held regardless of whether Egypt attends.

Push Precautions
Britain and France meantime pushed ahead with military preparations in case peaceful means to settle the issue fail.

In Washington, however, U.S. Secy. of State Dulles predicted the "moral force" exerted by other nations would solve the Suez problem without resort to arms. He added that the United States had "given no commitments" to use military power if peaceful means fail to provide a solution.

Western diplomats in Moscow were hopeful that the Soviet Union would attend the conference, but they speculated that the Russians might ask that Red China and other Communist satellites be invited, too.

Moscow's View
A Moscow Radio commentator said the Western Big Three apparently intend to use the conference to restore foreign control of Egyptian territory. "Who can fail to see," he added, "that the solution of any question affecting Egypt cannot be achieved without the agreement of Egypt herself?"

The attempt to deal with Egypt's nationalization of the important 103-mile waterway at an international round table was decided on by Dulles, British Foreign Secy. Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau at a meeting in London this week.

Reports from Cairo said shipping continued to move normally through the canal, although shipowners of the major maritime powers still were paying their tolls in London and Paris to the old Suez Canal Co., which had operated the waterway since it was completed nearly a century ago.

LEWIS EXPECTS NEW COAL BOOM

HARRISBURG (P) — The Suez Canal crisis today shaped up in the mind of John L. Lewis as a possible shot in the arm to American coal exporting.

And aside from that possibility, the United Mine Workers president predicted that 1956 will be the best year for the sale of American anthracite and bituminous coal coal overseas.

The labor leader told a Harrisburg news conference yesterday that the Egyptian decision to nationalize the canal implies a "bottling of oil" that proceeds through the waterway from the Far East.

Foreign Market
To bear out his contention, Lewis said "deprivation of that oil would affect the economies of all European countries — especially England."

"It's our opinion that foreign markets will increase their demands for American tonnage," he added.

In a further note of encouragement to the coal industry, Lewis said:

Give Target Date On Turnpike Tolls

HARRISBURG (P) — The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission has promised to decide definitely on Aug. 21 whether truck and car tolls shall be raised, lowered or remain the same on the 408-mile superhighway.

Chairman G. Franklin McSorley said yesterday the commission will meet on that date to decide whether it will accept or reject a comprehensive survey made of its operation by an independent engineering firm.

Michael Baker Jr. Inc., Rochester, Pa., submitted the findings of its survey July 19 in which the firm recommended that truck tolls be reduced "in a realistic manner" immediately and passenger car charges remain unchanged at least until after the spring of 1958.

STATE G'S PLAN LENGTHY CRUISE ON PAY SAVINGS

SEOUL, Korea (P) — A couple of young American soldiers with a taste for travel and a knack for saving a sizable part of their Army pay will be off soon on a world cruise designed to get them home for Christmas.

Sp3.C. Dudley Atherton, 22, of Scranton, Pa., and Sp3.C. Richard Jervis, 24, of Ambler, Pa., will be discharged in Japan early next month. Then they will board ship for points south and west.

En route to Europe they plan stopovers in Hong Kong, Singapore, Colombo, Bombay, Karachi, Aden, Suez, and Port Said.

European Tour
At Naples the two will pick up an automobile for a six-week tour of the continent. After 10 days in England, they'll head for home arriving in New York about Dec. 10.

They figure the total cost, including the automobile which will be sold back to the company before they leave France, will be about $2,800, all of it saved from their Army pay.

"We came into the Army from college with nothing, and after this trip we will still have nothing, but we figure it's worth it," Jervis said.

Met In Korea
Atherton grew up in Glenside, Pa., a few miles from Ambler, but he and Jervis did not meet until they came to Korea.

Atherton, who has been here 10 months, plans a return to college. Jervis, a graduate in business law from Penn State and a 17-month Korean veteran, will look for a job.

Dr. Burney Named Surgeon General

WASHINGTON (P) — Dr. Leroy E. Burney, former health commissioner of Indiana, is the new surgeon general of the United States.

Burney is an expert on radiological health, including such problems as radio-active fallout from A-bombs and H-bombs. The 49-year-old physician succeeds Dr. Leonard A. Scheele as head of the Public Health Service.

Scheele resigned to become president of Warner-Chilcott Laboratories Inc. in Morris Plains, N.J.

He told newsmen, "It's a delusion and a snare that atomic energy is going to replace coal in the near future."

ADLAI ASKS HARRIMAN TO POUND GOP

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Adlai Stevenson yesterday asked Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, his chief rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, to aim his political harpoons at the Eisenhower administration — not at Stevenson.

Stevenson told newsmen in New York, "I think there is enough to criticize in the Eisenhower administration without Democrats criticizing one another."

The former Illinois governor, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee and front-running candidate for the job again, referred to a speech Thursday night in which Harriman said a policy of "moderation" would lead to a Democratic defeat in the November election.

Chandler Steps Out

Harriman did not mention Stevenson by name in the speech, but Stevenson has advocated a program of moderation in implementing the Supreme Court decisions outlawing racial segregation in public schools.

Stevenson said, "I presume Gov. Harriman is doing what he thinks best for our common cause" — explaining that by "common cause" he meant "the success of the Democratic Party."

Meanwhile, Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky stepped up his campaign to convince Southern Democrats that he is the logical man to take on President Eisenhower in the fall.

Looking For Support

The former baseball commissioner and ex-senator was in Wilmington, N. C., looking for convention support following a two day tour of South Carolina. He

Boy, 3, Is Fatally Hurt On Turnpike

IRWIN, Pa. (P) — A three-car collision on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, three miles east of the Irwin interchange, last night killed Joel Mosch, 3, of Tarrs, Westmoreland County, Pa.

Treated for minor injuries at Westmoreland County Hospital were John T. Mosch, 51, Mrs. Teresa Mosch, 24, Jan Mosch, 2, and Frederick Miner, 31, of Camp Hill, Pa.

State police said a car driven by Mosch veered out of the eastbound lane in a construction area, crossed into the westbound lane, and collided with cars driven by Miner and William C. Neiberding, 21, of Cleveland, Ohio.

said he is "an active candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination right down to the wire."

So far there has been little evidence of convention support for Chandler outside of Kentucky. Many Southern party leaders already have indicated they're for Stevenson.

But Chandler said neither Stevenson nor Harriman, whom he described as "the so-called front running candidates," are acceptable to Dixie.

Pigeonholes Others

Stevenson, he said, is a "do gooder and an internationalist." And he said Harriman "wouldn't run well in the South."

As for his own qualifications, Chandler said all anyone has to do is examine his Senate voting record "on controversial issues affecting the South."

But on the top issue in the South—segregation of Negroes and whites in schools — Chandler said any talk about the Supreme Court ruling against this practice "is just engaging in conversation." "We know," he said, "that the Supreme Court has the final say on the law of the land."

It was Littlestown's official Welcome Home celebration to World War II veterans.

The 17-year-old Gettysburg high school student stands six-feet-one-inch in height. One month ago on his birthday he enlisted but was turned down for lack of weight. He returned home and began a campaign of eating fattening foods to increase his weight. Each day he would report to Sgt. Walter Stubbs, local recruiting sergeant, to be weighed. When he gained 12 pounds, within one month, he was accepted for army duty.

YOUR LIFE WORK

We can't decide upon a plan of life, and all that that entails, without serious self examination. We should all do the one main thing that gives us the greatest pleasure and personal satisfaction. The main thing is to select the kind of work that enables you to serve others. And, of course, you would have to like that work or else it could serve no one.

Even if you have to test yourself at many a job, don't let that discourage you, for on some bright morning you are sure to awake and finally feel that you have selected as your life work the very thing about which you once dreamed but which you were not ready to grasp and make your own.

It was John Ruskin who once said: "Blessed is the man that has found his life work; let him ask no other blessedness." It's like living on a rippling river, but often visiting the tributaries of extra fun and the stirring up of extra interests. Pursue the main thing but do not allow it to rut you, or to deaden your initiative and enthusiastic ardor.

Aim high, and aim at something, even though you may not hit it. It is far better to aim for something that you want, even though you don't get it, than to aim at something that you don't want — and get it. The values in your life work lie in their selection and use. It is not the money you earn that is going to give you supreme happiness, but the influence and love that you put into your work and which helps others to walk proudly in the procession with you.

Choose intelligently, and work out your own salvation. Be your own man. Dare to initiate. Take pride in trying to make the job you handle a genuinely important one. Keep your eye upon the man above you. You may take his place some day!

FIRE

He would not be a careless word do injury to man.
Nor snatch from life one treasure more than honor truly can.
And yet while passing through the woods one lovely summer day
He lit his pipe and carelessly he threw the match away!He knew the havoc fire can cause;
He knew this friendly foe;
He'd seen at home uncounted times its weight of loss and woe.
Yet he who would not by a word or deed his neighbor wrong,
Flung to the woods a lighted match and calmly moved along.There followed that one careless deed a forest's dismal fall;
Brave homes which sheltered pioneers and held their little allWere swallowed by the hungry flames which only rain could stay—
The ruin from one tiny match a man had tossed away.One may recall the thoughtless word and right the careless deed.
But fire no pity shows to men when once its power is freed.
And many a forest lies today in desolation grayBecause one careless hand had tossed a lighted match away.

Commission Will Shock The Public, Leader Announces

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader looked today for a current investigation of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to bring shocking revelations "that will be quite an eye opener to a lot of people."

At a news conference Thursday he said that the public, the newspapers and motorists "will be shocked when we finally reveal just how the Turnpike Commission has operated outside the law."

At the same time he said he "was sick to death of the extravagance that has been taking place in General State Authority construction."

Meeting with the press in Harrisburg for the first time in a month, the governor refused to be drawn into discussion of the investigation.

Promises Full Picture

"Draw your own conclusions," he advised when asked if the investigation had uncovered corruption under previous Republican control of the commission. He added that had been the case with the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission.

"In due season, after the investigation, you will get the full picture," the governor promised. "I will not go into details today because the investigation is not finished."

The governor also belittled reports of trouble between Chairman G. Franklin McSorley of the Turnpike Commission and Secretary Joseph J. Lawler of the Highways Department.

"There is no conflict there whatsoever—it is merely a matter of operating under the law. I don't believe you can even call it an impasse. I think there has been a lot of misinterpretation of what is being done."

He emphasized that the object of the attorney general's decision which ruled that many Turnpike functions must be carried out by the Highways Department in accordance with the law was aimed at bringing the commission's operations inside "both the spirit and letter" of the law.

"Frank McSorley is my chairman and he will be for the rest of my term of office," the governor said.

His statement on the GSA, borrow and build agency of the state which he heads as chairman, came in reference to a proposed new office building in Philadelphia.

"I'm not discussing the political complexion of GSA. I'm giving you my personal opinion of what I think on building extravagant buildings on taxpayer's money that will be paid for over the next 3 or 40 years," he said.

The governor promised to ask a few questions about bids that came in two million dollars over the eight million estimated building cost.

Other Topics

Leader made these comments on other topics:
National politics—"I have great regard for Estes Kefauver—he is a tremendous campaigner and senator but I have not made up my mind on the vice president.""I have not given it a great deal of time or thought."
"Kefauver is one of the men that ought to be considered. No indeed, I am not at all interested in the vice presidency even if it is offered me and I doubt that it shall be."

He also gave Adlai Stevenson "an excellent chance" to win the Democratic presidential nomination on the first ballot and said Stevenson was now assured more than 5 of Pennsylvania's 74 delegate votes.

Tax Group Meets

Taxes—He set Thursday for a "kickoff meeting for organization and preliminary planning" of his new bi-partisan tax advisory commission and said he hoped it got down to work immediately on "this very serious problem."

Industrial development—"If the federal government continues to refuse to take cognizance of depressed areas states are going to have to do a bigger job... If the federal government doesn't move into the field quickly I hope the state will set aside 10 million dollars for industrial development in the 1957-59 fiscal period."

Unemployment Compensation—"With the fund in its present healthy state with increased employment and with the present schedule of increased contributions it should be possible to raise the level beyond 350 million dollars by Dec. 31. That figure would permit a return to the lower contribution schedule of last year."

On Jan. 1 of this year average employer contribution rates went up from 1.2 per cent to 1.7 per cent of the total payroll, costing employers an estimated additional $50 million dollars during 1956.

Milk—"There is no doubt the dairy farmer is in trouble. The nation's largest dairy processors have been able to increase their profits to unprecedented heights while the consumer has received little or no benefit in the form of a low retail price on milk."

He made that comment on a telegram he received from the newly organized Assn. of Independent Dairyfarmers in which they asked him to intervene on their behalf to provide them "a reasonable return" for their role in milk production.

Walker Cooper's Bat Conquers Brooklyn In 12th For Cards As Braves And Redlegs Tumble

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Walker Cooper, the old pappy guy, has shown the old-pro Brooklyn Dodgers how it's done and the revived St. Louis Cardinals now show signs of making it a four-team scrap in the National League pennant race—where nobody's a doorman anymore.

Coop, 41, one of the old Cards of the pennant happy days in the early '40s, banged a home run and two singles for four RBI last night—including a bases-loaded, two-run single in the 12th inning that beat the Dodgers 11-8 after the younger generation of Cards had blown a six-run lead.

The tie-breaking single not only gave the fourth-place Cardinals a six-game winning streak, but also junked the jinx held by Brooklyn relief pitcher Clem Labine over the Redlegs. Clem had beaten them eight straight since 1952.

4 Hours And 10 Minutes

With St. Louis winning the 4 hour, 10 minute struggle at Ebbets Field, all top three teams stood still in the standings. First place Milwaukee, after losing three straight at Brooklyn, was smacked 4-3 by the Pittsburgh Pirates, who have lost eight in a row. And second place Cincinnati, after dropping two of four to last place New York, was belted 6-3 by the fifth place Philadelphia. It was the sixth straight for the Phillies over the Redlegs.

The Chicago Cubs and New York split a two-night doubleheader, the Giants winning 7-1, then losing 2-0.

Detroit's Tigers, rebounding from an 18-3 pasting by Boston the day before, slashed 14 hits to rock the American League leading New York Yankees 10-4. It was the fourth straight loss for the Yankees, but their seven-game lead stood up as the Red Sox continued their sniping with a 7-1 decision over runner-up Cleveland. Chicago's White Sox hammered Baltimore 13-3 with little Billy Pierce becoming the first 17-game winner in the majors this year. Washington beat Kansas City 2-1 in 11 innings.

8th Win For Curt

Curt Simmons, no longer a sore-arm case, scattered 10 Cincinnati hits, losing his shutout on three unearned runs in the eighth. It was his eighth victory and fifth in a row. Four runs in the third, capped by Willie Jones' two-run triple, won for the Phils, handing Brooks Lawrence his third defeat. Charley Maxwell hit his 21st home run and three singles in the Tiger assault, with a five-run fourth nailing down Billy Hoelt's 13th victory. Bill Skowron homered for the Yankees, who lost starter Whitey Ford when he was struck on the pitching hand by a first-inning liner. Yankee outfielder Bob Cerv also was injured, bruising his right knee when he crashed into the left field screen. Rip Coleman lost it in relief.

FORD FRICK TO SURVEY MINOR LEAGUES' ILLS

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick today was rushing preparations for a survey of the minor leagues and what they need to keep them alive.

A joint committee of the major leagues yesterday gave Frick the green light to conduct the survey and there is a $500,000 fund waiting if the commissioner finds the minors need it.

An alternative proposal to help bring money into the sagging minors' coffers was offered by Brooklyn President Walter "Malley" who suggested a national baseball day. All the major leagues would be split into 20 teams and play games in minor league parks around the country on one day of the season.

Other actions taken at the committee meetings included:

1. The National League awarded the 1959 All-Star game to Pittsburgh.
2. The National League rescinded a rule which prohibited the second game of a Sunday doubleheader starting under the lights.
3. The reporting date for next season was set for Feb. 28.
4. Baltimore asked for the 1958 All-Star game, but its request was not officially granted. It probably will be, however.

MOORE MIFFED ABOUT DELAY

By RENE J. CAPRON

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Archie Moore, more than a little miffed by the postponement of his heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson, feels he should be crowned right now—by default.

Ancient Archie, light-heavyweight king who has been on a prolonged and often verbose quest of the heavy title, got news of the delay during a stopover here last night while en route to San Diego, Calif.

The flashy Floyd, nursing a broken right hand, had a Sept. 25th date with Moore.

Word from the Patterson camp is that the paw hasn't healed.

Moore promptly dispatched a telegram to Chairman Julius Helland of the New York State Athletic Commission. "I have given Patterson every opportunity and I have lived up to my end of the bargain," the wire said. "Now I claim the title and he must come to me, as a challenger, before we sign."

Lafayette Invites 47 For Grid Drills

EASTON, Pa. — The Lafayette College football squad will begin drills September 1, with 47 candidates having been invited by Maroon Coach Steve Hukuf to report at that time.

Included in the squad will be 28 holdovers from last year's squad, 17 of them lettermen, and 19 sophomores who will come up from last year's freshman team.

Lafayette will open its season with Muhlenberg September 22. Other games on the schedule are with Temple, Delaware, Albright, Bucknell, Gettysburg, Rutgers, Western Maryland, and Lehigh. Gettysburg will play at Easton October 27.

Nashua's Owners Propose Four Races

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Nashua's owners have proposed four races for a possible third meeting of the world's leading money winner and Swaps.

Last year, as 3-year-olds, Swaps beat Nashua in the Kentucky Derby but the verdict was reversed in a match race.

The owners of Nashua yesterday listed as "races in which Nashua is entered and in which we hope to have him run, provided he remains sound and fit."

JOEY GIAMBRA IS DECISION WINNER FRIDAY

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Now that Sugar Ray Robinson is beginning to show his age everyone wants to fight the middleweight champion. Joey Giambra is no exception.

The Buffalo, N.Y., Adonis softly mentioned the champ's name following his decision victory over fleet-footed Rocky Castellani in a television 10-rounder in Madison Square Garden last night. It was the rising Giambra's fourth straight conquest.

"Everyone wants to fight Robinson," said matchmaker Billy Brown disgustedly after he tried to talk Mike Scanlan, Giambra's manager, into a discussion about some other ranking fighters.

"We'd fight Robinson tomorrow night," said Scanlan. "But since he won't be available to us for some time I'm going to let Joey take a rest and spend some time with his family. His wife is going to have a baby in January."

Giambra, a picture puncher, didn't get much chance to show his power until the final 30 seconds of the sixth round. He couldn't catch the bicycling Castellani until then. When he did nail Rocky in the fading seconds of the sixth it made a new fight out of what had been a dull and roundly booed track meet.

The three officials voted for Giambra this way: Referee Mark Conn and Judge Frank Fullam, each 7-3, and Judge Johnny Rizzo, 5-4-1. The AP had Castellani ahead on rounds, 5-4-1, but agreed that Giambra deserved the verdict. Handsome Joey made the fight.

MAYER LEADING TAM O'SHANTER BY ONE STROKE

CHICAGO (AP)—Dick Mayer, a handsome, promising pro from St. Petersburg, Fla., via Old Greenwich, Conn., was the front runner by one stroke as the $25,000 All-American Golf Tourney today moved into its third round at am O'Shanter Country Club.

Mayer, spearing his second straight 69 yesterday for a halfway total of 6-under par 138, thus aimed at his second 1956 tourney triumph. The 33-year-old Mayer, although 13th in the current PGA money standings with earnings of $12,593, has won only the Philadelphia Daily News Tourney this year.

With the field trimmed to 80 pro after yesterday's rain-soaked day, Mayer held a one-stroke lead over stolid Julius Boros, last year's winner of Tam's $50,000 top "World" tourney prize. The current All-American is a warmup for the "World" which starts next Thursday and again has a $50,000 winner's swag. Boros made his move with a second-round 67 after opening with 72.

Others Are Tied

Four players were knotted at 140, including one of Thursday's first-round co-leaders, Australia's Peter Thomson, the current British Open champion. The other co-leader, Antonio Cerdá of Buenos Aires, slumped to a 75 after his opening 67, for 142.

More than a half dozen name players were stripped from the field as a 148-stroke limit was set for the final two rounds.

One of the victims was Jerry Barber, 1954 All-American champion. Others included Lloyd Mangrum, All-American winner in 1948, 1949 and 1953; Bo Wingler, Skeel Riegel, Tommy Bolt, Freddie Haas and Johnny Bulla.

Still very much in contention were three other 140 shooters, ed Kroll, Bud Holscher and Porky Oliver.

Keystone Softball Tourney Finals Set

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Teams from Allentown, Altoona and Chester-Media rested today on early victories in the fifth annual Keystone Amateur softball tournament.

A grand slam home run by Woody Kelly gave the 772nd Air Force Group from Altoona a 4-3 victory over Stroudsburg in the tournament's first game last night.

The Allentown pioneers tripped up Jim Thorpe, 8-7, with a ninth inning two-run rally and the Pennsylvania Fliers from Chester-Media defeated the Perkasie Crusaders, 7-3, in the third game.

The airman met the Schaeffer's Contractors from Harrisburg today. Bethlehem meets Tamaqua and Stroudsburg faces Jim Thorpe in a loser's bracket game. The tournament ends tomorrow.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Binghamton Triplets are proving the old baseball axiom—that good pitching is the heart of any ball club.

The Triplets boosted their Eastern League lead to two full games last night by taking both ends of a doubleheader from Albany—6-0 in the seven-inning opener behind the five-hit pitching of Steve Kraly; and 2-0 in the nine-inning nightcap behind the three-hit pitching of Jerry Buchanan.

The Senators, who now have been shut out in three consecutive games on the road, failed to put a man as far as third base all evening.

In other games, Reading moved up into second place in the standings by shading Williamsport 5-4 in 11 innings while Schenectady dropped three games off the pace by coming out on the tail-end of a 6-1 game at Syracuse. At Allentown the host team edged Johnstown 7-6.

U. S. DAVIS CUP HOPES LOOKING UP AFTER WINS

By WILL GRIMSLEY

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—You can't start checking freight rates for return of the Davis Cup just on the strength of a couple of easy victories over Mexico, but it can be said today that spirits are higher in the U.S. Tennis camp than any time in the last 10 months.

The reasons:

1. Vic Seixas, who can be either sparkling or atrocious, at the age of 32 is playing perhaps the best tennis of his life.
2. Hamilton Richardson, now a married man of 22, has improved immeasurably in the past few months and may be ready to graduate from his perennial roll of "rookie of the year."

Both Seixas and Richardson looked like men to be reckoned with yesterday when they scored opening singles victories over Mexican rivals in the American Davis Cup final at the Westchester Country Club.

Seixas, his service cracking and his net play deadly, downed Mario Llamas, Mexico's No. 1 player, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Richardson, playing well within Francisco Contreras, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. The United States can clinch the zone title today by winning the doubles in which the baby members of the Yankees team—Sam Giammalva, 22, of Houston, and Barry MacKay, 20, of Dayton, Ohio—play Llamas and Contreras.

Littlestown Little League

The revised schedule for the remainder of the Littlestown Little League baseball games for this season has been announced as follows:

Monday, August 6, Lions versus Eagles; August 1, Vets vs. Giants; August 9, Lions vs. Vets; August 13, Giants vs. Lions; August 14, Eagles vs. Vets; August 15, Giants vs. Eagles; August 16, reserved for rained out games; August 17, Old Timers baseball game, to be preceded by several innings of play between two Little League teams. All games will begin at 6 p.m., and will be played on the softball diamond at the community playground.

The officers and managers of the Little League will meet on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at Banker's Restaurant, N. Queen St. Preparations will be made for the Little League to march in the parade prior to the Old Timers game on August 17, and to play that evening on Memorial Field.

ALL-STARS TOP ELKS 7-1 FOR SERIES SWEEP

The All-Stars of the Big Little League swept the best-of-three series from the Elks, regular season champions, by winning 7-1 Friday evening to make it two straight. The game rings down the curtain on the 1956 campaign for the circuit.

Three runs in the second and three more in the third sewed up the decision for the All-Stars as they outthrew the league titlists 5-2.

Joel Riddemoser collected two hits for the winners while Tom Crist poled a trip.

The only hits off Ronnie Aspers, winning hurler, were by Dave Stoner and John McClellan.

VFW ANNOUNCES TOURNEY PLANS

The Gettysburg VFW opened its new horseshoe courts Friday evening by losing to Hunterstown 10 to 8 in a contest held under lights.

At the same time the VFW announced plans for an elimination tournament to select an Adams County champion. John E. Kerrigan, of the VFW horseshoe committee, said that beginning this Monday, Monday and Saturday evenings will be tournament nights at the VFW courts, with all persons, whether VFW members or not, asked to play on those nights.

A score will be kept of each game and the two individuals with the highest scores at the end of the tourney August 27 will play for the right to meet Dean Ford, Hunterstown, present Adams County champion, on September 14 for the county title.

Kerrigan also announced that the VFW has extended an invitation to teams to compete in horseshoe matches on Friday evenings. Teams wishing to play are asked to contract the VFW or Kerrigan to make arrangements for use of the court on Friday nights. While prior registration for participation by individuals on Monday and Saturday nights is not required, individuals participating are urged to register in advance in order to help in setting up the schedule.

The VFW will award trophies to the first, second and third place winners in the county championship tourney.

Nine runs on seven hits and three walks in the fourth inning wrapped up the decision for the Vets and Clyde Staub's three-run triple was the highlight of the frame. Red Saunders poled two hits for the Elks.

Hess Antiques clinched at least a tie for third place by topping the Eagles 6-3 in the opening game. Earl Little and Don Gignous each had two hits for the winners. It was the seventh win in the last eight games for the Antiques who at one time trailed the league with a 1-5 mark. Clear rapped a pair of singles for the Eagles.

BUILDING AND FARM

10-Year-Old David Benner Has Two Projects Underway — 4-H Baby Beef And Money For TV

David Lloyd Benner, who will be 11 in November, has two projects underway at the moment — a 4-H Baby beef, and a glass jar in which he is collecting money for a television set.

The eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Benner, Fairfield R. D., David is starting his first year of 4-H work and was selected by the county agents for this series of articles on 4-H members as "representative of the youngsters just starting in the program."

David is a "second generation" 4-H member in the county. His father was a 4-H Swine club member "back more years ago than seems possible," he says, and won a number of ribbons for his work in 4-H.

To Keep Up To Dad

David, who admits to getting "some help" from younger brothers, Roger, 8, and Jimmy, 5, says he hopes to get as many ribbons for his Baby Beef work as his father got in swine, "to uphold the family."

A handsome, intelligent boy, David admits to helping his father and his grandfather, B. E. Benner, on their farms and shyly claims he even "helps mother around the house a little bit."

He says he likes "going swimming

It takes some thought to properly feed a steer, the expression on 10-year-old David Benner's face seems to say as the "yearling" in the Adams County 4-H Baby Beef Club provides food for the Angus steer he is raising this year—his first 4-H project. (Times Photo) and playing games best" in his 4-H work, but proudly displays his Angus calf and reports that it gained in weight from 530 pounds in December to 950 pounds in July and adds that he doesn't have any trouble at all in keeping books on the animal to record what it eats, how much it gains, and what it is costing him daily.

Has Profits Spent

He says the animal, the first steer he has ever raised, is "doing okay." David has the profits he hopes to make from sale of his steer this winter already neatly assigned for purchases. First he is going to buy a basketball. Second he is going to buy a TV set.

The television set is a minor dream of David, Roger and Jimmy, who are certain they want one, while the parents are not too sure that a set would be a good thing.

The same problem has bothered other parents, most of them after the TV set had been installed, so the Benners are asking about to sort of make up their minds what to do in the situation.

Another Project

Meantime to quiet the juvenile pressure, the boys have been told to save their money toward a set if they want one. So far, they have accumulated $5 toward the purchase price using a jar as their depository.

David has another project underway — saxophone playing. He has been studying the horn for a year and a half and says he "does all right." He plays in the band at Fairfield where he is in sixth grade.

David and his brothers "give evidence of developing into as good men as their father and grandfather," acquaintances of the family say, and the Benners are noted in the county as solid, intelligent men, and excellent farmers.

DO-IT-YOURSELF AWNINGS

Latest gadget for the do-it-yourself addict is aluminum awnings, packed in kits and pre-cut to cover average size windows. For longer lengths, the awnings can be placed side by side. About the only tool the home-owner needs to assemble them is a screw driver. They can be disassembled for winter storage.

PROTECTION FOR SAW

A good way to keep the teeth on a saw from being dulled by coming into contact with other metal objects in the tool chest is to split a length of garden hose and slip this over the teeth of the saw.

Room Painting Made Easy For Women Of House

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

You can paint a room these days in less time than it takes to bake a cake. A small room, of course.

That is a lovely excuse for the lady of the house taking over and doing a room whenever she feels in the mood. It is simple these days, what with paint rollers and lovely colors to select. Colorwise types will venture to mix their own paint colors. Fun too, because all you do is squeeze color from a little metal tube into a bucket of plain white paint to get the shade you like.

More women are doing the home painting, what with dad complaining that he can't find the time or can't afford a painter or can't find one that is available. Well — why not Mom?

Some paint producers have devised a simplified paint-tube process that makes possible a range of some 1,300 hues. That way if Mom likes pink and Mrs. Jones has a pink kitchen, she can still have pink but have her own special pink.

All In One Color

The small home, for instance, may be done all in one color, using a different hue in each room. This makes the house seem larger and with a little thought in advance, Mrs. Homemaker can plan it neatly.

Paint stores have pamphlets on how to mix these paints so that one color may be deepened from kitchen to bathroom to give a lovely range of shades. Or your paint store man can mix the paint for you.

Blue, a color in the decline a few years back, is making a strong comeback. Pink-coral, yellow-maze, white-off-white and gray follow in succession. Chateaufort is popular again too.

All sorts of effects may be achieved with little effort. Polka-dot paint, a spray on coating that consists of fine droplets of various-colored lacquers suspended in a water medium so that the color used in the largest amount becomes the background while other colors appear as colorful contrasts is easily applied.

One paint gives a chalkboard surface, still another simulates frosted glass.

Odorless Paint

Most paints today are odorless, and some states have outlawed leadmixed paints for safety reasons.

Legumes Vs. Fertilizers As Source Of Nitrogen

Seven crop and soil specialists were called upon to give a comparative evaluation of legumes and commercial fertilizers as sources of nitrogen for crop production. Extracts from their comments given in CROPS AND SOILS indicate the complexity of the problem.

Graber of Wisconsin says that it is hard to foresee the abandonment of legumes in favor of total dependence on synthetic nitrogen and grass. Quick-acting nitrogen fertilizers have their place, but he doesn't think it likely that they will replace legumes, on which we have depended so long and so much for feed and for fertility.

Our immense nitrogen-fixing industry has taken over the primary function of legumes in grain rotations, i.e., fixing nitrogen, according to Bray of Illinois. He says that old-time legume rotations are on their way out. They were primarily designed to grow legumes, and the grains were fitted into the legume program. But with grasses, the principal objective can be to grow the maximum yield of grain as often as possible.

Fill Subsoil

As to the future of legumes, Willard of Ohio reminds us that, on many soils, tap-rooted legumes put part of their nitrogen and organic matter into the subsoil, and won-

ROLE OF LEGUMES IN OUR CROPPING SYSTEMS

- (1) Alter physical structure of the soil.
- (2) Modify life of soil micro-organisms.
- (3) Influence availability of soil nutrients and fertilizers.
- (4) Control wind and water erosion.
- (5) Effect penetration and retention of soil moisture.
- (6) Provide for more flexible land use.
- (7) Spread crop hazards.
- (8) Balance nutritional value of feeds.
- (9) Provide soil fertility reserves for land use in food emergencies.
- (10) Improve and maintain soil productivity for all crops in association or rotation.

ders whether corn roots and nitrogen will keep the soil and subsoil in as good physical condition.

It will be well, he says, for the fertilizer dealer to keep in mind that we can obtain nitrogen at home if we have the incentive to do so. And it may be well not to tear up too many good-farming systems in favor of one so completely at the mercy of price relationships.

Andrews of Mississippi says that the use of legumes to supply nitrogen for another crop has almost disappeared from Mississippi farms and is decreasing in the other southern States, and there is little likelihood that their use will reappear so long as the cost is no more favorable than at present.

Grant of Iowa, whose guess is that we will come to a nitrogen-grass agriculture, says that legumes other than soybeans, which are raised for grain, will disappear since we can purchase artificially-fixed nitrogen now for less than 15 cents a pound, and he doubts if we can raise nitrogen for less than 75 cents a pound. He doubts if legumes have any place in a pasture.

Not Competitors

Aamodt of U.S.D.A. sums up his position in saying that, in a well balanced cropping system, the two forms of nitrogen should be complementary to each other rather than

DO-IT-YOURSELF
A survey by a paint company shows that it costs the average do-it-yourself homeowner 25 per cent more than is necessary and his painting projects take 50 per cent longer than they should, due to inefficiency and lack of knowledge. The average householder buys about eight gallons of paint per year, but not all in gallon quantities.

HOME IMPROVEMENT

The Federal Housing Administration reports that the average home improvement loan made in the past year was $464. Monthly repayments amounted to $14.83 for a three-year term. Purposes for which loans were used included 19 per cent for painting, 18 per cent for structural additions and alterations, 15 per cent for heating, 9 per cent for plumbing, 6 per cent for roofing.

competitors. It would be difficult to evaluate the use of legumes without giving consideration to the grasses that are practically always growing in association with them, whether established through seeding, or as a result of natural infestation.
